VOLUNTEERS WANTED

We are pleased to announce an exciting new community history and archaeology project at the world-renowned Hafod-Morfa Copperworks, once the largest copperworks in the world.

We are looking for Volunteers to become a part of this exciting new project. No prior experience required. Just come along and have fun!

To kick things off we will be holding two Launch Events at the Hafod Community Centre on 18th January 2018, 6.30pm and 25th January 2018, 6.30pm

We will then run history and archaeology Workshops throughout January, February and March based at Swansea University, West Glamorgan Archives, Hafod Community Centre and on-site at the Hafod-Morfa Copperworks.

For more information visit http://hafodmorfacopperworks.com/

To register your interest and find out more contact Richard Lewis, info@bmarchaeology.com 07834 715033
Volunteers Wanted

We are pleased to announce an exciting new history and archaeology project at the world renowned Hafod-Morfa Copperworks, once the largest copperworks in the world. We are looking for Volunteers to become a part of this exciting new project. No prior experience required, just come along and have fun!

To kick things off we will be holding two Launch Events at the Hafod Community Centre in January 2018. We will then run history and archaeology Workshops throughout January, February and March based at Swansea University, West Glamorgan Archives, Hafod Community Centre and on-site at the Hafod-Morfa Copperworks. Please check out http://hafodmorfacopperworks.com/ for regular updates to the programme.

Launch Events: Hafod Community Centre

18th January 2018, 6.30pm to 9.30pm. Keynote speakers:
Stephen Hughes, Secretary of The International Committee for the Conservation of the Industrial Heritage (TICCIH)

25th January 2018, 6.30pm to 9.30pm. Keynote speakers:
Dr Chris Evans, Professor of History - University of South Wales
Dr Tim Young - Geoarch and member of the Historical Metallurgical Society

Please get in touch, we would love to hear from you!

@copperhistories #lovecopper

To register your interest and find out more contact
Richard Lewis, info@bmarchaeology.com
07834 715033